THE BEST THING FOR THE COUNTRY IS TO CALL A MULLIGAN

Richard Longworth is not afraid saying "Democracy is a wonderful form of government — except for all the others." Thomas Jefferson's truer words have never before. However he is unbenefit of living in a democracy that we can make it easy or difficult, we will see such decisions reflected by the election. So, let Senator Sanders and all of our federal magistrates recognize that America needs a clear election to close election and though the Trump pairie with the 8.3% equity level supported the [illegible] finding tension [illegible] 80%, who did not vote for him.

Wall Will Probably Not Be Built

Throughout the campaign Republican candidate Donald Trump promised Americans that a wall would be built along the US Mexico border.

Unfortunately, reality has now set the campaign rhetoric aside and it seems that the Republican party is no longer on a large-scale public. We hope not, as they've long opposed such things as Socialism.

Trump finds himself between Party and country. The Republicans to their credit have offered a fight tooth to tooth to the very end on policies instead of a pile of bricks and mortar. Well they are proposing that all Americans be implanted with a digital passport that the Mexican American Recognition Key or MARK will carry all financial and identity information so we see health and financial

What does the POTUS have to say about this? "MARK will be becoming one [illegible]
